

The Lost IV

Have you ever been lost because you reached your limits? Have you ever been lost because you felt like you could not go on? Have you ever been lost because you just couldn't take one more thing? Have you ever been lost because you said "enough is enough"? Have you ever been lost because you just had enough and couldn't take any more?

I

You can get lost while carrying out your assignment.

Balance is the key to life.

Prolonged times of spiritual warfare can cause you to be lost.

(Prolonged times of fasting, prayer, decrees, intercession, spiritual conflict)

Even natural soldiers get furloughs.

A furlough is a period of time when a soldier is allowed to leave the place where he or she is stationed.

A furlough is a leave of absence from duty granted especially to a soldier.

- No seasons of rest between assignments can cause you to be lost.

Consider 1 Kings 19:1-5

II

There is a difference between giving up and knowing when you've had enough.

All of us have limits, margins and capacities.

Coaches press us to maximize our capacity.

Life will try to force you beyond your margins and limits.

- Life's schedules, pressures and stresses can cause you to be lost.

III

What do you do when you've had enough?

Rest your body. Vs 5-6

Refresh your soul and spirit. Vs 7-8

Redirect your attention to His current voice. Vs 9-14

Return to your assignment. Vs 15-17

Remember you are not alone. Vs 18

- There are others, out there, waiting on you.
- The Lord has not abandoned you.
- There are others you have not met who are with you and for you.
